DTY Library Wall

Paying tribute to schoolhouse style, this youthful look encompasses an energetic vibe.

What you'll need:

- Vintage school desks
- Floating bookshelves
- Hardware for hanging
- Globes, books and small objects for styling

What you'll do:

1. Hang your school desks as the focal points of this unique look. Make sure they are securely attached to the wall.
2. Add floating shelves to the look. "We had originally planned to have plumber pipes wrapping around the bookshelves, but it looked way too busy, so I had an assistant run to the Container Store to purchase the floating bookshelves, which created platforms for the globes," Jeanie says.
3. Once your shelves are attached, arrange your vintage books in a way that you like and add your final accents like globes and knickknacks as the final touches.

JUNK TO Gems

Turn trash into treasure with these three projects using vintage desks, globes, frames and a jeweler's table.

PROJECTS AND STYLING BY APARTMENTJEANIE
PHOTOGRAPHY BY RIKKI SNYDER

Owner of the lifestyle curation company apartmentjeanie, upcycler Jeanie Engelbach knows how to save trash from a life in the landfill and turn it into vintage treasure.

"The two vintage school desk chairs were both found on the streets of New York City," Jeanie says. She found one of them on the street outside a Nicole Miller store, and the other next to a city trash can.

"One had about 17 layers of white house paint, which my father and I stripped with plans to cover the chair with a mosaic of chipped china," she says.

Using a little ingenuity and elbow grease, here's how she turned curbside castoffs into one-of-a-kind keepsakes.
